

God gives us people to care for us

It can be hard work taking care of people. In the heart below write the names or draw people who care for you and of people who care for others and ask God to be with them. And don't ever forget that God will always care for you .

Why not decorate the heart and make it a beautiful symbol of thanks for all people who care.

