

SOLIHULL PARISH LENT COURSE

THE LONG ROAD TO HEAVEN

By Tim Heaton

Zoom groups across all three churches

We are planning to hold a number of online Zoom groups during Lent in all three of the churches across the Parish. If demand is high other days and times will be offered.

You are invited to join a group to do a study based on the film 'The Way'. This stars Martin Sheen as a bereaved father walking the Way of St James to Santiago de Compostela. The five-part study course 'The Long Road to Heaven' by Tim Heaton explores Christian understandings of salvation.

The Venerable Paul Taylor describes it as "an outstanding and exciting course that I strongly recommend". We hope there will be several groups for each of the churches so if you are interested please contact the organiser for your church by the 14 February. The courses will be run on Zoom with clips from the film included. Each participant will need a book and these have been ordered for the parish at the reduced price of £5.

SUGGESTED READING

Three books to chose from

All come recommended

Christ on Trial - Rowan Williams
(recommended by Paul Taylor)

A Powerful and moving message. The trial, conviction and death of an innocent man 2000 years ago has particular resonance today. Atrocities from around the world shake us every week. And we ourselves also experience trials and challenges in our own lives. Bringing the gospel accounts vividly to life, Rowan Williams looks at how the trial of Christ profoundly challenges both what we believe and how we live.

The Little of Book of Lent - Arthur Howells
Daily reflections from the world's greatest Spiritual writers, recommended by Merrill Flood.

Living His Story - revealing the love of God in extraordinary ways (Archbishop's Lent Book 2021)
Hannah Steele uncovers liberating and practical ways of sharing the gospel story afresh. With warmth and encouragement, she shows us how we can live Jesus' story in our own lives simply by being the people God made us and allowing people to be drawn to him through our natural gifts.
