

Lent and Easter for Everyone

This Lent, we are drawing on themes and insights from the book Lent and Easter for Everyone by Tom Wright, a New Testament scholar and former Bishop of Durham, whose writings are widely appreciated for their accessible and engaging approach. The book offers daily readings and reflections for the seven weeks of Lent, guiding us to journey with Christ—from his time of testing in the wilderness, through the sorrow of the cross, and onward into the joy of Easter.

There is no need to purchase the book as each group leader will draw on its content in different ways to suit their groups. However, the book will be available for £8 at the Parish Office and the St. Alphege Bookstall for those unable to join a group or wishing to explore the daily readings and reflections more deeply. The page opposite has details of the different groups taking place which includes the Churches Together Saturday breakfast. All are welcome to attend any group, but please contact the leader so that they can plan appropriately. Groups run one week beyond Easter Day, and most groups won't meet during Holy Week. More details on Holy Week and Easter services will follow.
